

REACH CERTIFICATION

EU REACH Regulation 1907/2006/EC Update – 1/12/2017 Background:

The European Union REACH (Registration, Evaluation, Authorization and Restriction of Chemicals) Regulation 1907/2006/EC is a major revision of the EU Chemicals legislation and requires that all Chemicals (on their own or in preparations) are registered before being manufactured or imported in quantities above 1 metric tonne per year. Current Total to Date is 173 SVHC's.

The below link references all current REACH Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) as of 1/12/2017

1.) The 15 SVHC, (10/28/2008 inclusion date)	10.) The 6 SVHC (6/20/2013 inclusion date)
2.) The 12 SVHC, (1/13/2010 inclusion date)	11) The 7 SVHC, (12/16/2013 inclusion date)
3.) The 1 SVHC, (3/30/2010 inclusion date)	12) The 4 SVHC (6/16/2014 inclusion date)
4.) The 8 SVHC, (6/18/2010 inclusion date)	13) The 6 SVHC, (12/17/2014 inclusion date)
5.) The 8 SVHC, (12/15/2010 inclusion date)	14) The 2 SVHC, (6/15/2015 inclusion date)
6.) The 7 SVHC, (6/20/2011 inclusion date)	15) The 5 SVHC, (12/17/2015 inclusion date)
7.) The 20 SVHC, (12/19/2011 inclusion date)	16.) The 1 SVHC, (6/20/2016 inclusion date)
8.) The 13 SVHC (6/18/2012 inclusion date)	17.) The 4 SVHC, (1/4/2017 inclusion date)
9.) The 54 SVHC, (12/19/2012 inclusion date)

Notification to ECHA to be submitted no later than 6 months after inclusion on SVHC list.
http://echa.europa.eu/chem_data/authorisation_process/candidate_list_table_en.asp?sortBy=Date_inclusion&order=ascending

In addition to the above Chemicals related registration requirement the Regulation also requires manufacturers and importers of articles to provide information/instructions to recipients of articles for substances

- Which are identified as a substance for authorization and
- Present above a concentration of 0.1% w/w

Notification of authority for substances in articles if the following conditions are met:

- Substance is identified as a substance for authorization and
- Present above a concentration of 0.1% w/w in the article and
- Which are NOT intended for release and

1102 W. Geneva Drive, Tempe AZ 85282
(P) 480-921-0000 (F) 480-921-0030

- Placed on the market > 1 tonne per year (per producer, per type of article)

I, the undersigned, affirm no usage of the 173 identified SVHC's in our company products delivered to Amphenol RF as identified in this document

_Foresight Finishing LLC _____
Supplier Name

_Mark Williams
Authorized Representative

mw _____

Signature

1/24/17 _____
Date